We are delighted to announce that the 2017 New Focus Conference will be hosted by Merton Evangelical (Baptist) Church in south London beginning Friday evening 26 May, 2017 and running through Saturday afternoon, finishing with a service on Sunday morning 28 May. Our friends from Christian Bookshop Ossett will provide a bookstall.

Don Fortner will preach on Friday and Saturday evening and on Sunday morning. Harry Qazi and Peter Meney will minister on Saturday afternoon. Allan Jellett will lead communion on Sunday morning. A full schedule with times is available on the New Focus website.

Those wishing to travel to the event and requiring accommodation should note hotels in the area get booked up very quickly. The church building is less than ¼ mile from South Wimbledon tube station on the Northern Line for those within commuting distance. Car parking is not at all easy. Those seeking hotel accommodation should look for the London district SW19. The church's postcode is SW19 2LG and there is Premier Inn, Holiday Inn Express, the Antoinette and many other venues within a mile or two's distance.

Full details are available at www.go-newfocus.co.uk with car, tube, train and parking suggestions as well as numerous hotel options for which we thank Pastor Harry Qazi.

As always, to assist with catering, we shall be grateful to hear from those planning to attend. The conference is free to attend. Collections will be uplifted to help cover the costs.

We encourage all who can join us to do so. We believe in the importance of faithful men preaching the gospel of free sovereign grace and value the blessings granted by God the Holy Spirit in the mutual fellowship of the Lord's people gathered to worship their Lord and Saviour.
